"The Apostle of the Goldfields" is set on a superb and generous block of around 1500 m2 residential zoned land in the heart of Carisbrook in the goldfields. Commanding and architecturally impressive, St Francis Catholic Church circa 1864 is surrounded by established and designed gardens to enjoy.

Inside is sure to impress with the as-expected high ceilings and timber floors, and the established old school section has been converted into a large kitchen dining area with a wood fire and gas log fire.

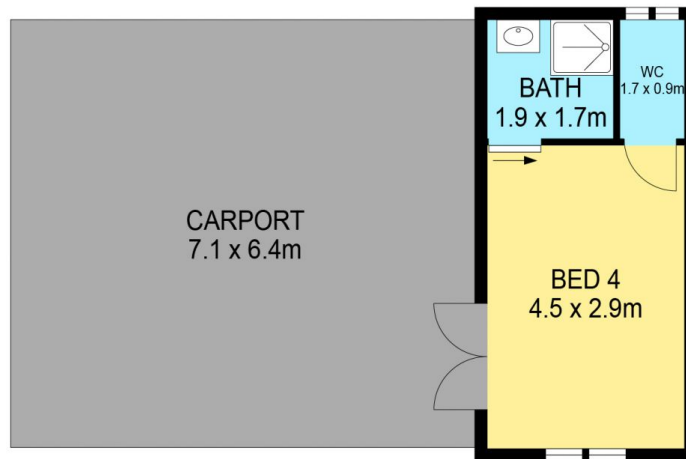

The main area has a spacious and expansive living zone, a mezzanine level bedroom with ensuite along with extra bedding area upstairs and downstairs along with a bathroom and extra space for a study.
